Please join with other Society members and friends of Doyce in expressing your gratitude for 25 historic years of editorship.

Your gift to the Doyce B. Nunis, Jr. Publications Endowment Fund will keep history alive for generations to come.

And, you will be thanking Doyce in a special and personal way.

Your gift to the Fund is fully tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. Checks are payable to HSSC.

It was history in the making on June 4, 1987 when the Historical Society honored Doyce B. Nunis, Jr. for generously serving as editor of the Southern California Quarterly for the past 25 years.

Two hundred sixteen (216) friends of Doyce and the Society joined in an evening of tribute at The Huntington. Following the cocktail hour and elegantly served dinner, guests enjoyed a private viewing of the library Exhibition Hall. Classical arrangements for flute and guitar by Doug and Jill Rubio added to the memorable evening.

Executive Director, Tom Andrews, emceed the program highlighting Doyce's accomplishments and announcing the Society's gift of $25,000 to launch the Doyce B. Nunis, Jr. Publications Endowment Fund. This special fund has been established to honor Doyce by endowing the Southern California Quarterly and other HSSC publications. The Society welcomes contributions to the fund at any time.

The Society wishes to thank members of its Board of Directors who helped to underwrite the dinner: Elna Bakker, George Dunning, Henry Lippitt, Denver Markwith, Joe O'Flaherty, and Stan Penton. The combined efforts of the Board and the Honorary Committee made the evening a memorable one. Serving on the Honorary Committee were: Mabel Billington, Glen Dawson, Charles Ducommun, Jim Greene, Al Martin, Miriam Matthews, Robert Moes, Lawrence Clark Powell, Martin Ridge, Charles Ritcheson, Msgr. Francis Weber, and Jacob Zeitlin.

The success of the Gala was largely the result of the leadership and generosity of one individual — Chairperson George A. V. Dunning. George hosted a catered luncheon for the Honorary Committee, helped to underwrite the invitation packet, and designated his $15,000 contribution to HSSC to go to the Publications Endowment Fund. Special thanks are due George for these significant contributions, and for his willingness to continue to serve the purposes of the Society in his new role as President.

With the weather cooperating beautifully, The Huntington proved a lovely setting for the evening's dinner and festivities. The Society gratefully acknowledges the assistance of Robert Middlekauff, Director of The Huntington, Martin Ridge, Director of Research, and Joan Caillouette, Special Events Coordinator, for their guidance and approval of the arrangements.

The Society wishes to thank the following Benefactors and Patrons for their contributions to the Publications Endowment Fund and to the special Spring issue of the Quarterly: Mabel Billington, Henry Clifford, Glen Dawson, Charles Ducommun, Patricia Ingram, John Kemble, Miriam Matthews, Robert Moes, Albert Shumate, and Helena Zimmer.

E. W. "Dutch" Holland, Marion Holland, Glen Dawson and Mary Helen Dawson.
